HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Jan Glass as mother of the year, as recognized by the Indiana Chapter of American Mothers, Inc.

WHEREAS, Jan Glass was named the recipient of this tremendous award due to her love of her family and her dedication to her faith;

WHEREAS, The Indiana Chapter awards this title to a woman who has fun with her family, works at parenting skills, has a moral and spiritual foundation and contributes in a positive manner to her community and society;

WHEREAS, Along with raising a family Mrs. Glass completed two master's degrees, worked for six years at Blackford Community School Corporation, as well as 14 years at Eastbrook School Corporation (including 11 years as a high school guidance counselor and three years working closely with at-risk children) followed by serving as an adjunct professor of education at Taylor University;

WHEREAS, Jan Glass has shown a love for her family and a willingness to sacrifice for their needs without drawing attention to herself in a desire to provide the best life for her husband, children, and grandchildren;

WHEREAS, Without the loving support of her husband George, her four children - Cynthia Shinabarger, Leo Glass, Debra Goeglein, and Dr. Tim Glass - as well as her seven grandchildren, who have served as the inspiration for her life, this award would not have been possible;

WHEREAS, Mrs. Glass is most proud of the lives her children have established which are built upon Christian principles and family fun; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Glass plans to use her title to further her commitment to children with two goals in mind:

1. Bringing together women to craft quilts for abandoned, HIV positive or severely injured babies in hospitals; and,
2. Initiate a program among women who have raised their children to put together books on parenting tips for younger or new parents to be distributed in low-income areas.

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

Section 1. The Indiana General Assembly wishes to honor the tremendous role that Jan Glass has had in the lives of her family, and that of many other Hoosiers that she has touched, be it through the professional, family or extracurricular aspects of her life.

Section 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Jan Glass.
